DUEL ON THE STREET

Mineola Is the Scene of a Terrible Shooting Affair.

ONE MAN IS A CORPSE

He Lost His Life by a Bullet Fired by a Party Whom He Had Just Shot Down—Others Also Were Injured.

Mineola, Tex., Oct. 15.—A terrible street duel was fought here Wednesday afternoon in which a man named Shubert, who claimed Grand Saline as his residence, was shot and killed; City Marshal Tillman Cage was shot through the top of the head and was probably mortally wounded; N. M. Harpole, a bystander, was shot in the body above the heart and is not expected to live, and W. D. Kitchens is shot through the neck and hip and is seriously wounded.

It is stated that the tragedy grew out of charges of violation of the local option law filed by Shubert at Quitman. Shubert met W. D. Kitchens in front of Chappel & Harpole's store.

A conversation took place in which it is said Kitchens asked Shubert if he had bought any liquor from him in Mineola since local option took effect. Shubert replied that he had. Kitchens denied it emphatically, and an altercation ensued in which it is stated Shubert was struck.

Shubert drew a pistol and began firing at Kitchens. Kitchens fell on the street, being shot through the neck and hip. While upon the ground Kitchens fired at Shubert, who was about twenty feet away, and killed him. Shubert had two pistols, and was firing all the time. During the shooting the city marshal ran to where Kitchens was lying and attempted to lift him up. As he stooped he was struck in the top of the head by a shot from Shubert's pistol and fell over in the street. N. M. Harpole was struck just over the heart by a bullet while standing in his store some distance away.

CAR OVERTURNED.

Illinois Sheepman Loses His Life, and Two Others Hurt.

San Antonio, Oct. 15.—Beertle Doty, a sheepman of Charleston, Ill., lost his life in a slight freight wreck at the fair grounds Tuesday morning.

The car, loaded with livestock exhibits for the fair, was ditched by striking a cow on the track and overturned.

John Brooks, chief clerk of the San Antonio and Aransas Pass depot force, was severely bruised, but he is not believed to be seriously injured.

George M. Hardy, traveling agent for the fair, was also shaken up, but was able to resume his duty with the fair association.

C. R. Doty of Charleston, Ill., a brother of the victim of the accident, and three helpers were in the overturned car and escaped injury.

HOTEL DESTROYED.

Frank O'Neill, a Painter From Beaumont, Burnt to Crisp.

Sour Lake, Tex., Oct. 15.—The Sour Lake Townsite company's big hotel, which was nearing completion here, was burned to the ground Wednesday night. It was to have cost when completed $25,000. Frank O'Neill, a painter from Beaumont, jumped from a second story window, and was burned to a crisp.

Belonged to Hogg.

Austin, Oct. 15.—Fire destroyed the stables used by H. G. French, who runs a dairy. There were six head of horses and two mules cremated. The loss is estimated at $20,000. The property belongs to ex-Governor Hogg. No insurance.

Injunction Granted.

Waco, Oct. 15.—Judge Surratt, on application of the street car company, granted a temporary injunction restraining the city officers from making any arrests of parties running electric cars.

"Nothing to Arbitrate."

San Antonio, Oct. 15.—At a conference between Revs. A. J. Harris and Homer T. Wilson, representing the strikers, and the president of the street car company the latter said he had nothing to arbitrate.

Fair a Success.

San Angelo, Tex., Oct. 15.—The first day of the fair was a grand success and largely attended.

Lynch Captured.

Salt Lake City, Oct. 15.—James Lynch, the condemned prisoner, who, with Nick Haworth, escaped from the state penitentiary here last Friday night, has been captured at Woods Cross, a small village twelve miles north of this city. Lynch offered no resistance. He was in a deplorable condition from lack of food and loss of blood from a wound in the right arm, which he received during the battle with the prison guards at the time of the outbreak.

MUST RUN ITS COURSE

Rapid Increase of Cases a Severe Strain on Doctors.

TWO MORE VICTIMS.

Physicians at Laredo Desire Other Texas Cities to Emulate Example of Beaumont and Send Much Needed Oil.

Laredo, Tex., Oct. 15.—The yellow fever situation is unchanged. During the past week many new cases have been reported, but the doctors, who are working night and day treating those who are ick with the fever, still maintain that there is no cause whatever for alarm, stating that the disease is of such a character that it must run its course and then disappear altogether.

The work of placing the city in a perfect sanitary condition is still being carried out, and will tend to shorten the time when the disease will have entirely disappeared.

The official bulletin for the twenty-four hours up to midnight Wednesday night issued at the Texas health department's office, is as follows: New cases, 27; deaths, 2; total cases to date, 300; total deaths to date, 16. The victims of the disease who died Wednesday were Mexicans. The city still presents a dead appearance, many people having left at the beginning of the yellow fever scare and several thousands later on when the disease had unmistakably developed.

The rapid increase in the number of cases is growing to be a tremendous burden upon the physicians, who deserve great credit for the way they are working day and night to alleviate suffering and save human life. The fever is in every portion of the city.

Dr. Tabor is expecting a carload of oil from Beaumont, when the entire city will be saturated and, it is hoped, a final end put to the yellow fever mosquito.

The health officials would be glad if other cities would follow the example of Beaumont and contribute two or three more carloads of oil, as a great deal will be needed.

No report has been received from the town of Minera, so it can be inferred that there have been no deaths or development of new cases.

The official bulletin of cases in Nuevo Laredo, published late Wednesday, says there were eleven new cases and eleven cases termed "suspects" Tuesday.

Word from the United States consulate states that the condition of Consul Barrett is much improved. Grave fears for his recovery were entertained Tuesday night, and Dr. Murray, the famous yellow fever expert from Florida, passed the night at the consulate.

A bulletin on the situation at Monterey on Monday states that there were four deaths and five new cases of yellow fever. Among those who died were C. A. Blederman, who was agent for the Wells-Fargo Express company.

CLEVELAND SPEAKS.

Former President Delivers an Address to Club at Chicago.

Chicago, Oct. 15.—"Give to our people something that will concentrate their common affection and solicitous care, and let that be their country's good; give them a purpose that stimulates them to unite in lofty endeavor, and let that purpose be a demonstration of efficiency and beneficence of our popular rule."

This was the solution offered by former President Grover Cleveland as a remedy for corrupt politics, in a speech before the members of the Commercial club at their annual banquet given at the Auditorium hotel Wednesday night. The subject discussed by Mr. Cleveland was "American Good Citizenship."

He received an enthusiastic reception by the 800 banquetters when he appeared at the speaker's table.

Mr. Cleveland arrived at Chicago early in the morning, and went direct to the Auditorium hotel, where he greeted a number of friends who were waiting to meet him.

At 1 o'clock in the afternoon he was the guest of Cyrus H. McCormick and David B. Jones at a luncheon given in his honor at the Chicago club.

STATUE OF SHERMAN.

Testimonial to the Departed General Dedicated at Washington.

GRANDSON UNVEILED

President Roosevelt, Orator on the Occasion, Speaks of the Late Ohioan in the Presence of a Mighty Gathering.

Washington, Oct. 15.—The equestrian statue to the memory of William Tecumseh Sherman was unveiled by a little grandson of the departed chieftain, William Tecumseh Sherman Thorn-dyke, in the presence of official Washington, the president, diplomatic corps and cabinet at its head. Thousands of veterans, members of societies of the Armies of the Cumberland, Tennessee, Ohio and Potomac, all regular troops in the vicinity of Washington, a battalion of marines, two battalions of seamen and District of Columbia National Guard were reviewed by the president before the unveiling ceremonies, which began at 2:30 o'clock Thursday. After an invocation by Rev. D.
J. Stafford and music by the Marine band, General Granville M. Dodge, president of the Society of the Army of the Tennessee and chairman of the Sherman statue committee, made an introductory address. Upon its conclusion the Marine band struck up "The Star Spangled Banner." The Fourth field battery, United States army, fired a salute, and flags which hid from view the statue were drawn aside by the grandson of him in whose memory it was erected.
President Roosevelt was then introduced and spoke in part as follows:

"To-day we meet together to do honor to the memory of one of the great men whom, in the hour of her agony, our nation brought forth for her preservation. The civil war was not only great in the importance of the issues at stake and of the outcome of modern times, but it was also, taking into account its duration, the severity of the fighting and the size of the armies engaged, the greatest since the close of the Napoleonic struggles. Among the generals who rose to high position as leaders of the various armies in the field are many who will be remembered in our history as long as this history itself is remembered.

"It is not necessary here to go over the long roll of Sherman's mighty feats.
They are written large throughout the history of the civil war. Our memories would be poor indeed if we did not recall them now, as we look along Pennsylvania avenue and think of the great triumphal march which surged down its length when at the close of the war the victorious armies of the east and of the west met here in the capital of the nation they had saved.

"To very few in any generation is it given to render such service as General Sherman rendered, but each of us in his degree can try to show something of those qualities of character upon which,
in their sum, the high worth of Sherman rested, his courage, his kindness, his clean and simple living, his sturdy good sense, his manliness and tenderness in the intimate relations of life, and finally his inflexible rectitude of soul and his loyalty to all that in this free republic is hallowed and symbolized by the national flag."

The statue, which is the work of the late Carl Rohl Smith, is of bronze and nearly seventeen feet high and weighs four tons. The likeness of the dead warrior is said to be excellent, and connoisseurs consider the pose exceptionally natural.

AGAIN CROWDED.

Miller and Johns Cases Are Exciting Much Interest.

Cincinnati, Oct. 15.—The United States district courtroom was again packed on the third day of the trial of Daniel Vorhees Miller of Terre Haute, formerly assistant attorney in the office of the
assistant attorney general for the postoffice department at Washington, and of Joseph M. Johns, an attorney at Rockville, Ind., charged with conspiring to bribe.

C. A. G. Christianity, who was the first assistant attorney in the office of the
assistant attorney general for the postoffice department when D. V. Miller was second assistant attorney general in the same office, testified to all presentations and considerations in the cause of John J. Ryan & Co., turf commissioners, who had been using the mails in book making. He did not know of all the correspondence between Miller and Ryan or the latter's attorneys. Miller did not show him reports to inspectors that recommended that a fraud order should be issued against use of mails by Ryan's concern.

THE AURORA ZOUAVES.

One of the most potent proofs of the supremacy of America in arms was not the soldiers who fought against Spain, but, as a matter of most singular fact, was soldiers who did not fight at all save as individual members of various regiments, while some of them never saw a battlefield or were enrolled in the records of the war department of the United States.
They were simply State militiamen—amateur soldiers. And yet these same citizen soldiers were in Germany and other European countries last summer, and were in a number of the principal cities of the German Empire, where they demonstrated the fact that there were no other soldiers in the world who were so well drilled.

It is difficult to conceive the sensation created by these Illinois boys—the Aurora Zouaves. When it was first proposed that they make a tour of Europe the idea was laughed at, notwithstanding the fact that they had been first prize winners at all interstate drill contests in the United States in the last fifteen years. It was said that such a thing was all well enough in its way in this country, but when they reached Europe, with its huge standing armies made up of men who were the sons of generations of soldiers, they would not receive much attention nor could they hope to command respect.

The result is astounding. Their success was far beyond their most sanguine expectations. The newspapers plainly asked the question: "What must these Americans be when their amateur citizen soldiers so far surpass our own professional soldiers in proficiency?" Editorials in the newspapers reflected the sentiment of the public when they declared unqualifiedly that the world had never before seen soldiers so well drilled.
Nobility and royalty itself acknowledged their astonishing skill as soldiers, and their every appearance was marked by the presence of numerous royal officers.

They were offered all sorts of inducements to remain many months beyond the limit of their stay, which had been arranged when they left home. Business and family affairs compelled their return, however, and then a combination of influences, patriotic feeling and pecuniary compensation induced them to show themselves to their fellow-citizens of this country. To do this they will appear at every afternoon and evening performance of the Adam Forepaugh and Sells Brothers Enormous Shows United, and will be seen here when they exhibit on October 17.

CORTIS TESTIFIES.
Steamship Agent Not Pleased With Contract Labor Law.
New York, Oct. 15.—The commission appointed by President Roosevelt to inquire into the affairs of immigration landing here has resumed public hearings. Samuel Cortis, representative of the White Star line, testified as to the operation of the new immigration law and said he considered the present contract labor law a detriment to the country and that it keeps out a better class of people. He said 50 per cent of the people coming to the country come on prepaid tickets or on money sent them by friends on this side. Under the present law they are all liable to be sent back.
IS TEMPORARY.
Injunction Holds Until Judge Can Examine Validity of Ordinance.
Waco, Oct. 15.—In granting a temporary injunction restraining the enforcement of the city ordinance that says a person must have thirty days' experience before being a motorman, Judge Surratt stated it would be effective until he could look into the legality of the ordinance. The street railway officials claim this ordinance was being used to prevent them from running cars.
Was Not Knocked Out.
Philadelphia, Oct. 15.—Bob Fitzsimmons failed to knock out Joe Grim in the scheduled six rounds. The plucky Italian, who has met many good fighters and never been knocked out, was given severe punishment by Fitzsimmons and was knocked down probably a dozen times, but was on his feet at the end of the bout.
LONG JOURNEY.
Will Travel About Sixteen Thousand Miles.
New York, Oct. 15.—Preparatory to sailing on a cruise of 15,000 miles to the Philippine islands to escort a torpedo boat flotilla, the first of the kind to ever set out from these shores on such a voyage, the cruiser Baltimore left the New York navy yard under command of Capt. Briggs. The Baltimore has been out of commission since she returned from Manila, where she participated in the battle under Admiral Dewey. It is figured that six months will be required for the torpedo boat flotilla to reach Manila. A remarkable course has been mapped out. A straight course will be made past Hatteras to Bermuda. When the Barbadoes are made the flotilla will continue south by east. The northern shores of South America will be hugged, stops being made day or two. From Brazil the steered will be back to the west African trade group to

LADY INDIGNANT.
Miss Wood Has No Interest in Anybody's Matrimonial Intentions.
New York, Oct. 15.—Miss Mae G. Wood, to whom was attributed the purpose of instituting a suit for breach of promise of marriage against Senator T. C. Platt on the eve of his marriage with Mrs. Janeway of Washington, arrived at the Manhattan hotel Wednesday afternoon from Ontario county, New York, where she had been at the bedside of a sick relative. Miss Wood expressed herself in terms of indignation regarding the published rumor and said that she was not interested in any person's matrimonial affairs. The only persons who are apt to get into trouble, she added, are those who are at the bottom of those silly rumors.
When asked if she knew Senator Platt, she said:
"Of course I know him. I have known him for several years. He has always been friendly to me and I esteem him highly. I regret the publication of these ridiculous stories as very unfortunate and distressing."
To a reporter Senator Platt said: "I have seen the statements about Miss Wood in the newspapers and regret that anything should have been published to her discredit. Of course all suggestions in regard to law suits are absurd and ridiculous. I have known Miss Wood for a long time and with the senators from her own state recommended her for a position in the post-office department. So far as I know she has performed her duties satisfactorily. I regard her as a lady of fine attainments."
SPILLING OF BLOOD.
Non-Union Negro Coal Wheeler Fatally Shot by a Striker.
New Orleans, Oct. 15.—Bloodshed resulting from the coal wheelers' strike on the river front occurred Wednesday, when Nelson Griggs, a non-union negro was shot in the abdomen, and fatally wounded. Joe Bernard, a striker who escaped, is charged with having done the shooting. The tug Wilmet, was about to land a number of non-union men when the strikers fired on her. Only Griggs was shot.
Killed by a Train.
Jennings, La., Oct. 15.—W. C. Howren, aged fifty-two, was struck by the eastbound passenger train here and almost instantly killed.
Taking No Sides.
Washington, Oct. 15.—It became known Wednesday that the president is not taking any side in the Maryland senatorial contest. He is interested only in the success of the Republican ticket in Maryland and is not in favor or against any candidate whatever.

MORE TRANQUIL.
Japanese Newspapers Are Requested to Exercise Discretion.
St. Petersburg, Oct. 15.—A dispatch received from Port Arthur says advices from Tokio show the feeling in Japan to be more tranquil and reports of extensive preparations for war are denied. The Japanese war minister has requested newspapers to be more circumspect in their utterances. Port Arthur official newspapers reiterate the impossibility of Russia evacuating Manchuria while the rebellion continues in China, and they emphasize the belief that the mikado and Marquis Ito are both opposed to war.
QUICK TRIAL.
Going Gets Twenty Years For Assault on an Idiotic Girl.
Rome, Ga., Oct. 15.—The negro, Albert Going, who was accused of criminal assault on an idiotic white girl near Rome, and who was sent to Atlanta for safe keeping, was returned here for trial under military escort. The jury found him guilty with recommendation for mercy, and he was given twenty years and returned to Atlanta under military escort.
RIOTS CONTINUE.
Two Priests Assaulted and a Lieutenant Badly Wounded.
Armentieres, France, Oct. 15.—The strike riots here continued Wednesday, a crowd of thousands of people throwing stones. Gendarmes, supported by cavalry, charged the rioters. A number of persons were more or less injured. Two priests of St. Charles' church were assaulted and a lieutenant of the Fourth curassiers was wounded. A general panic prevails. The streets are badly crowded and a large military force is assembling.
LITERALLY COOKED.
Horrible Fate of a Man in a Fire at Lake Charles.
Lake Charles, La., Oct. 15.—One of the most disastrous fires that has ever occurred in the history of Lake Charles took place Wednesday, when the Howard hotel went up in flames. The loss amounts to $40,000, while the insurance is only $12,000.
C. M. Nabors of Mansfield, La., jumped from a third story window, but was literally cooked before taking the leap. In the fall both of his legs were broken and he received several severe gashes about the head. He lived for five hours after his terrible experience, was fully conscious during that time and died in frightful agony.

Indigestion Causes Catarrh of the Stomach.
For many years it has been supposed that Catarrh of the Stomach caused indigestion and dyspepsia, but the truth is exactly the opposite. Indigestion causes catarrh. Repeated attacks of indigestion inflame the mucous membranes lining the stomach and expose the nerves of the stomach, thus causing the glands to secrete mucin instead of the fluids of natural digestion. This is called Catarrh of the Stomach.
Kodol Dyspepsia
relieves all inflammation of the membranes lining the stomach, soothes the nerves, and cures bad breath, sense of fullness after eating, indigestion, dyspepsia and all stomach troubles.
